

General Questions:

1. Why do you think you deserve to be a part of the club more than others who have applied?
2. What would you do if there is a clash between your attendance and working for the Literary Club?
- ~~3. How can you contribute to the club during this situation of a pandemic?~~
4. Task: There is an event conducted by the Literary Club in a few days. Make me want to participate in it.
5. If there is some work to be done and none of your teammates are responding, what would you do?
6. What are your strengths and your weaknesses?
7. Do you take part in any other activities in college? (If yes, what would you do if it conflicts with the interests of the Literary Club?)
8. How do you handle stress and pressure? Do you work under pressure?
9. What is your chief source of inspiration?
10. Do you work well as a part of a team? Are you a team player?
11. How do you keep yourself organised?
12. You find someone bad mouthing the Literary Club, how would you react?
13. In case of conflict between two co-members knowing one is clearly wrong, what would you do?
14. If there comes a situation in which you feel like you don't have enough time but people just keep assigning you a lot of work. Will you try to finish the work?
15. If there is a difference in point of view between you and a member in the group regarding a decision, how will you react?
16. Out of the different departments of the club (tell them the departments) which team do you think you will fit in and why?
17. What are your hobbies?
18. How would you describe your personality?

Topics for Speakers:

1. "An eye for an eye, makes the whole world blind", elaborate.
2. Talk about and give advice on speaking confidently in public.
3. Universal Basic Income should be everyone's right.
4. Deadlines obstruct creativity, what do you think?
5. Talk about your hobbies for a minute.